

WHAT OTHERS SAY

"You will remember I made my first Farr purchase in 1911, when I was a professor in Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio. I am glad you are carrying on the Farr name and tradition." E. A. Miller, Bay City, Michigan.

"Members of my family have been highly pleased customers since 1915." Mrs. Fenwick F. Richardson, Lovell, Wyoming.

"I ordered my first hemerocallis from you around twenty years ago. 'Better Plants by Farr' are better plants by far." Mrs. Walter Sharpe, Roanoke, Virginia.

"Your nursery stamp on plants is what sterling is on my silver in my opinion. Over the years Dr. Stout's daylilies distributed by Farr have been tops on my list." Mrs. Bright Taylor, Ocala, Florida.

Cash or The Plow

Daylilies as Low as 49c each
Until Sept. 1, 1955

Sooner or later some plants, no matter how good, multiply into a surplus. They became a liability to the grower. It is then time to sell them at any price, above the cost of digging and packing, or to plow them under.

Therefore this offer. If there aren't enough gardens which can use them at these prices, we will plow them under.

There is only one condition. No orders amounting to less than $5.00 can be accepted. Our usual quality and guarantee applies.

SALE PRICES

Until Sept. 1, 1955, unless sold out previously, the Sale List of Daylilies, opposite column, can be obtained at the following prices:

Any six or more, different kinds, @ 69c each;

Any 12 or more, different kinds, @ 65c each;

Three or more, same name, @ 59c each;

Five or more, same name, @ 49c each.

Example: 3 Afterglow @ 59c each;
5 Afterglow @ 49c each.

Shipment: By parcel post within 5 days, or any later date specified. Parcel post will be added to invoice at cost.

Terms are 30 days. No COD's and please do not remit with order. See the plants first. Pay within 30 days, or return them at once if in any way considered to be unsatisfactory.

Minimum Order: $5.00.

Uncatalogued Daylilies

The following Stout introductions are not listed in our current catalog because the demand has exceeded the supply. We can offer "one plant to a customer," for immediate shipment, while the supply lasts.

ALLAN-A-DALE: Mid-July to mid-August. 4 ft. Unusual shade of velvety dark rose, near carmine, or oxblood red, in even tone thru petals and petaloids. Brilliant gold throat with bright and conspicuous white stripe extending to tip of petals. Broad and overlapped, cup-shaped form. Freely branched. Good evenings. Semi-evergreen and clean foliage. $3.00.

CABALLERO: 3½ ft. July-Aug. A large, 4½ in. bicolor, vermillion red petals in sharp contrast to golden yellow throat and sepals. Full and spreading. Robust. Vigorous. Clean. Free. Good evenings. $3.00.

DUSTY MILLER: Mid-July to late August. An unusual color. Broad petalled, overlapping, recurved. Even toned, delicate, translucent. Light golden yellow with faint, dusty sprinkling of pale ochre, and faint suffusion of buff pink, general mother-of-pearl effect. Good evenings. Evergreen. $3.00.

ELFIN: May. 12-15 inches. Most dwarf and earliest of daylilies. Bloom with, and lower than, tall tulips. Many small golden yellow flowers above mounds of grassy foliage. $3.00.

ROYAL ENSIGN: July-mid-August. 1½-2 ft. Flowers large, full, recurving. Throat golden orange, extending in stripe along mid-veins of petals. Blades of petals rich maroon red, sepals somewhat lighter. Plants low-growing and compact, flowers forming a canopy on crest of foliage. Evergreen. $3.00.
